

travel & days out

late deal

Voyages to Antiquity (voyagestoantiquity.com) has announced two musical sailings for next year. Both cost from £2,195 and will be led by choirmaster and conductor Bob Porter, and passengers will take part in choral workshops leading to a final performance. The 11-day Renaissance & Rivas cruise departs on May 27, followed by the 12-day Classical Greece & Aegean Islands on October 7.

we love

This Rite in the Rain notebook is a great addition to any camping trip or outdoor expedition. The specially treated paper means that even in a downpour you can still get down those all important instructions or directions. £32.95 from thebushcraftstore.co.uk

where to go

There's extra reason to visit Bolton Castle in Wensleydale from September 2 to 4 when the historic site becomes home to a Medieval Music Festival. Featuring concerts, workshops and a medieval market. boltoncastle.co.uk top 3 yorkshire

PLACES TO STAY NEAR BEVERLEY

Rudstone Walk Country B&B, South Cave, Brough, 01430 422230, rooms@rudstone-walk.co.uk, rudstone-walk.co.uk: Offers both bed & breakfast accommodation and self-catering cottages sleeping up to six.

A rural retreat set in 80 acres, perfect for exploring historic Beverley, the heritage coastline and fantastic local countryside.

Tickton Grange Hotel and Restaurant, Tickton, 01964 543666, info@ticktongrange.co.uk, ticktongrange.co.uk:

A Georgian house offering comfort and a little bit of luxury. The hotel is set in four acres of garden, and rooms include Classic and Comfort with two elegant suites. For larger groups there are the Granary Rooms, a suite of four rooms with a private garden.

The Tudor Rose Hotel, 11 Wednesday Market, Beverley, 01482 882028, info@thetudorrosehotelbeverley.co.uk, thetudorrosehotelbeverley.co.uk: The Grade II listed building retains many of its original features. All the rooms are en-suite and the hotel's central location makes it the perfect base to explore everything that Beverley has to offer the visitor.

STAY A WHILE: Top, Tickton Grange Hotel and Restaurant; above, one of the rooms at the Tudor Rose Hotel in the centre of Beverley.